GEN. ALVARADO GOES TO SEE CARRANZA AT QUERETERO

According to "Excelsior," a leading daily of Mexico City, Gen. Salvador Alvarado has left the capital for Queretero to confer with president Carranza in regard to being relieved from military duty. Gen. Alvarado was until a few months ago governor of Yucatan. While he is a general of a division in the Carranza army, he is without a command. Not long ago he came out with some strong articles in the Mexican press showing how "jail birds" he termed them and the "dregs of society" had been elevated to high official positions, even in government of states and generals of divisions in the constitutionalist armies.

REBELS LOOT RIO BRAVO

Almazan's Band Withdraws Without Attacking Reynosa, Mex.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 2.—The situation on the border at Hidalgo, Tex., 56 miles west of Brownsville, was quiet Sunday, the Mexican rebel band under Gen. Andrew Almazan, apparently having withdrawn from that vicinity, according to announcement at district military headquarters here. Before leaving Saturday, the rebels ransacked the little Mexican town of Rio Bravo, ten miles east of Reynosa, but did not attack the latter place.

One troop of United States cavalry each from McAllen and San Ford, which were hurried to the border Friday night when Almazan's approach was reported, were ordered to return to their home stations after 24 hours' duty in the Hidalgo district. This is said to have been Gen. Almazan's fourth move to the border near Reynosa, for the alleged purpose of obtaining supplies.

Personal Note Given By Jenkins, Kidnaped Man To Obtain His Release

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, Mex., gave his personal note, endorsed by five responsible citizens of Puebla and Mexico City, to procure his release by bandits who kidnaped him October 19. The full amount of the ransom included an agreement that the bandits keep $25,000 worth of property stolen from Jenkins' hacienda.

The first payment on the ransom consisted of $4,000 peace and two drafts for $500 each in American gold, the balance being covered by the note.

These facts are disclosed in a statement which the American embassy in Mexico City has been authorized to make public.

PEACEFUL ELECTIONS ARE ANTICIPATED BY CARRANZA

Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 2.—Discussing the forthcoming elections on Saturday with newspaper men in Queretero, president Carranza declared there was no reason to anticipate either war or peaceful voting throughout the republic and expressed the belief that candidates for the presidency should begin announcing themselves and shaping their campaigns.

Carranza reiterated emphatically that he would not be a third term candidate, asserting that he preferred to turn the office over to a man elected by popular vote and re-elected.

He said that he deemed the bill recently introduced in the senate, granting amnesty to all former enemies of the government who are now supporting it in good faith, to be unwise at present. He thought, however, that such leniency might be extended after the elections.

President Carranza explained that at present persons who wish to return to the republic have no difficulty in doing so if they can show a proper attitude.

I grew so weak I couldn't eat, and so dizzy and faint and every time I stood on my feet I had the most miserable and heavy feeling in the lower part of my body.

I began on Cardui. It strengthened me after a few doses and diminished the . . . after the first bottle. I commenced to feel better. I regained my appetite . . . I took the Cardui right along . . . I am well and strong. That has been four years. I can do all my work and feel fine."

Cardui has been found to be a valuable tonic for women. It is composed of harmless medicinal ingredients, which act in a mild and gentle way on the system and help to build up the body and nerves.
